People I Have Loved Known
Mostly it's a collection of biographical essays on -just as the title says - people the author has known, loved, or admired. In the "loved" category is his father. In the "known" category are all kinds of quirky people he knew throughout his life. The funniest of those were about the soldiers he knew in the army.

We live in a love-obsessed culture in which we live surrounded by magazines giving us advice on how to know if he/she is “the one” and that almost scream tips on how to achieve love. While as an engaged woman I recognized that yes, love is a very nice thing to have your life, it is always good to keep in mind that loving and being loved is not like a movie or a song.
